

Richard S. Levick, Esq.
President/CEO

Richard Levick, Esq. President & CEO of Levick Strategic Communications, represents countries and companies in the highest-stakes global crises and litigation. His firm has directed media strategies on Guantanamo Bay; the Catholic Church; the Wall Street crisis; most of the front-page product recalls; and the largest regulatory, corruption, and merger matters in the world.

Honored on the prestigious list of “The Most Influential People in the Boardroom,” Mr. Levick has been named to multiple professional Halls of Fame for lifetime achievement. He and his firm have received multiple professional awards, including Crisis, Litigation, Investor Relations, and Food Crisis Communications Agency of the Year.

Mr. Levick is the co-author of several books including Stop the Presses: The Crisis & Litigation PR Desk Reference, and is a regular commentator on television, in print, and on the most widely read business blogs including Forbes.com. and TheStreet.com.

